

Associate, Employment

Bespoke legal services. Crafted for the commercial world.

Associate, Employment

Full Time Opening

Any Office/Hybrid

About CG's employment team:

Due to continued significant growth, we are looking to further expand our well-established employment team. Headed up by three partners, expert in their field, the team act for employers nationwide ranging from PLCs with large in-house HR capabilities to owner managed businesses developing their HR strategies. We have carved out a reputation as trusted legal advisor for household names across various industries. We have excellent relationships with our clients becoming an extension of their team and advise them day to day on employment matters. We also represent in Employment Tribunal and Civil litigation, provide corporate support advice in business acquisition, disposals and reorganisations, and deliver training. The team also benefit from a dedicated HR consultancy solution which can support our client base with outsourced HR services.

Our ideal candidate:

This role is ideal for an experienced employment lawyer (ideally with at least 3 years' experience, perhaps more) seeking a high-quality legal environment without the typical pressures found in traditional firms. Some of the key highlights include:

- Top-tier clients: Premium commercial law firm, providing expert legal advice to leading corporate organisations, fostering long-term client relationships.
- Flexible approach to working: Work from any of our locations and at home – our clients' needs come first.
- No billing targets and limited time recording: Focus solely on legal work and client service, without the distractions of fee projections and utilisation.
- Collaborative, supportive team: Work alongside highly experienced lawyers in a close-knit, non-hierarchical environment.

What we offer:

- Competitive salary, excellent benefits package and the opportunity to work at a firm with a genuinely exciting culture and environment.
- We prioritise your development, performance, financial future, career aspirations, work-life balance and health and wellbeing.
- We share in the success of the firm, reward working above and beyond and alignment with our ethos.

- We support flexible ways of working and have agile and hybrid ways of working.
- Health and wellbeing benefits
- We champion diversity and inclusion and are committed to supporting you as an individual.
- We provide a platform for your career and have a clear and structured career development program.

Apply for this role:

If you are interested in learning more about this opportunity or would like further details please email louise.myers@cgprofessional.co.uk

About CG:

CG challenges and reinvents the way legal services are delivered, consistently providing bespoke advice to cater for all sector needs. Our approach is unique, operating in a client first environment, creating a culture that engages and listens to the client base. Our people strategy is at our foundation, always recruiting & developing the professions finest talent, ensuring we confidently execute our proven CG formula. As one of the fastest growing law firms, this is an exciting time to join the CG journey. Our ambition is to continue to grow our name and presence to disrupt the existing market and continue to grow our team who all enjoy what they do and have fun doing it. Our partners have all previously worked for large international and national law firms and bring with them extensive, high-profile experience and networks. We have no red-tape or archaic structure and offer a flexible and agile approach to managing our teams which operate from offices in Liverpool, Manchester and Lancashire. Similarly, we try to support clients by way of a fixed-fee or retainer pricing wherever possible, so time recording is the exception rather than the rule. Come and join us!

